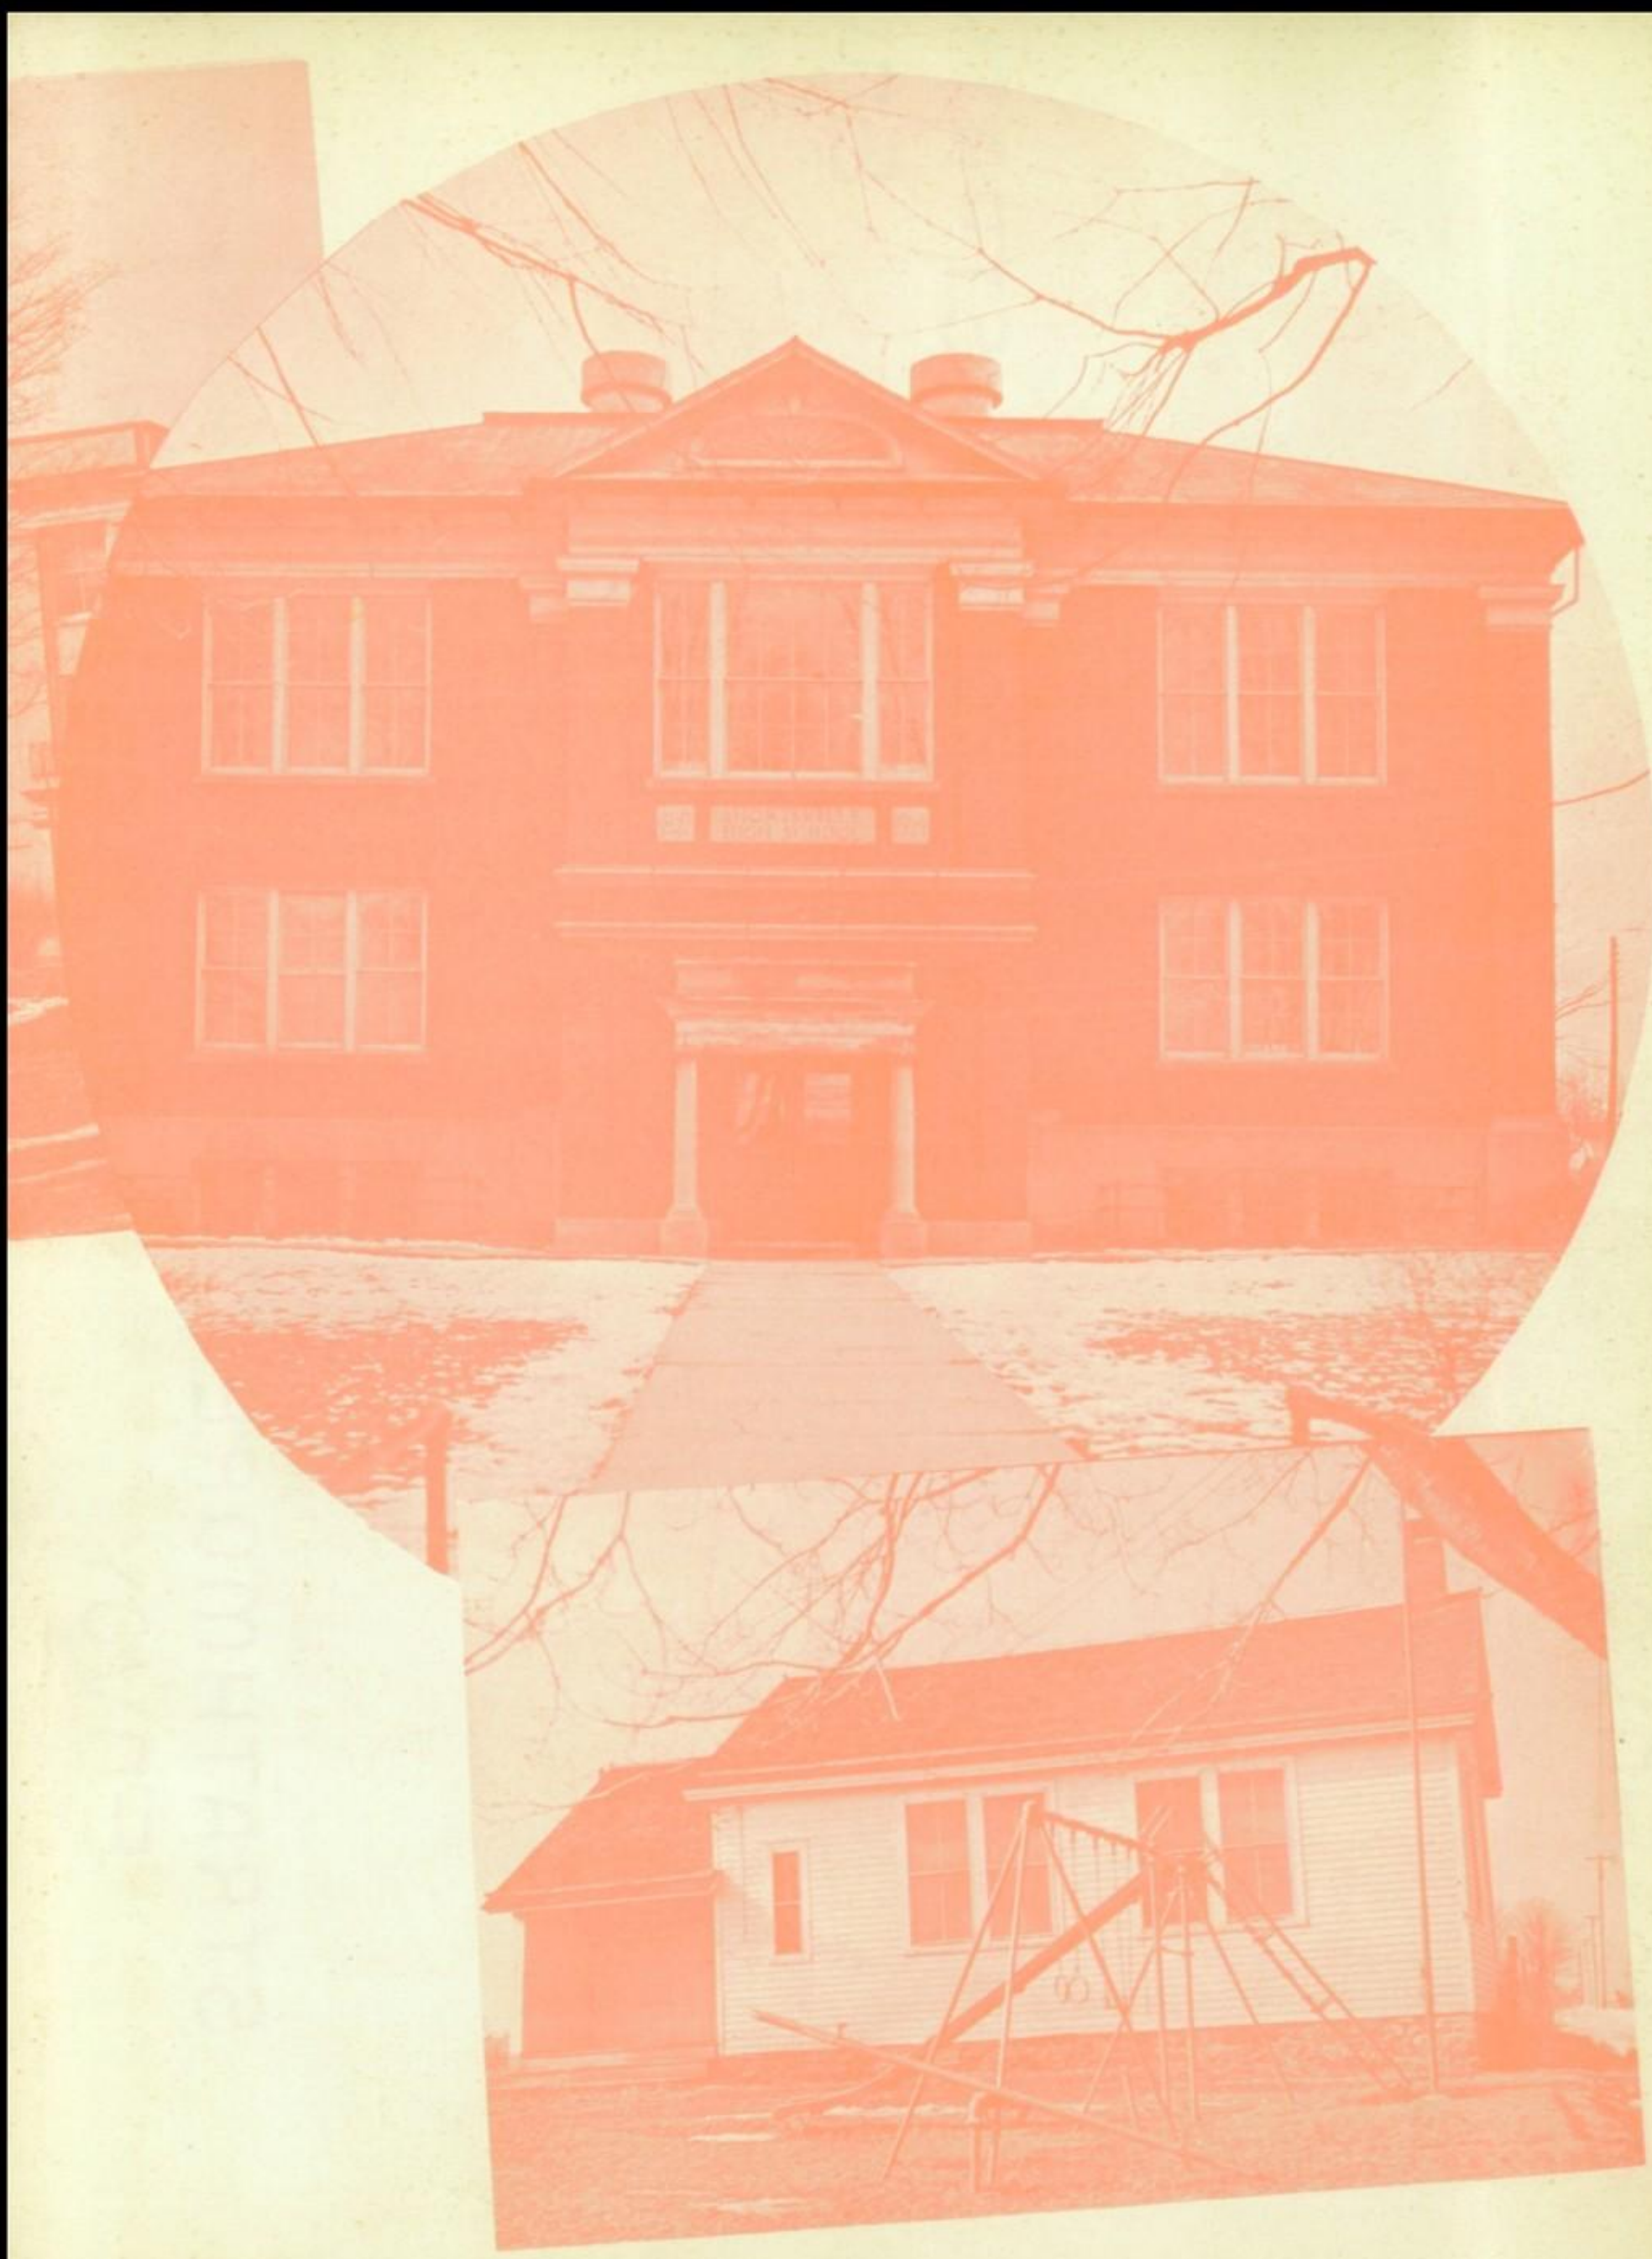
THE 1951 RED JACKET TRAIL



THE 1951

RED JACKET TRAIL

PRESENTED BY

THE SENIOR CLASS

RED JACKET CENTRAL SCHOOL

MANCHESTER, NEW YORK

FOREWORD

Just as the mere mention of the word "slate", an item of equipment in our earliest stages of education, recalls to mind many memories of school days, so it is our hope that this issue of "Red Jacket Trail" may reflect the curricular and extracurricular activities of school life and record them for future reference.

Though the slate is now obsolete for practical purposes, it has a sentimental value which we cherish, for it is a symbol of the need for learning and the importance of knowledge to civilization.

As we reflect upon the extent to which our tools of education have improved, we should seriously be concerned with whether or not the quality of mental growth has attained proportionate standards.

MISS MARY ARNOLD

We, the Seniors, appreciate Miss Arnold's efficient guidance. Her code of living includes a generous share of service to those with whom she is associated. Hers is not only an alert mind, but an orderly one, which we would do well to emulate in the activities of our adult lives.

May our friend, Miss Arnold, be the recipient of a full measure of happiness and success.

MR. EDWARD STACKWICK

Mr. Stackwick can hardly miss having a host of friends throughout his life, for he very obviously likes people. He has ever been most willing to turn his hand to everything which might be of benefit to those who seek his assistance.

The Seniors are grateful to Mr. Stackwick for his physical, mental, and moral cooperation in their behalf. We extend to him—and to his family—our best wishes for a prosperous and enjoyable future.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

These eight men are faced with the responsibility of establishing policies and acting upon matters of business in connection with the curricular and extra-curricular activities of Red Jacket Central School. They are to be commended for the amount of time which they contribute so generously and for their concerted effort to promote and maintain progress in the educational, social, and cultural growth of our community.

Mr. John Loveless
Superintendent of Schools

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Loveless is a familiar figure within the halls of our school. His manner is impressive, his smile friendly, his opinion of us—we hope—favorable! His message to students is: "An education is the birthright of every American Child. The use of that education for the betterment of mankind is the responsibility of every American adult."

Mr. Douglas F. Estes

This year the chief administrator at Red Jacket Central has been our principal and friend, Mr. Estes.

By the time Mr. Estes had been at Red Jacket only a few days, everyone had learned that the new principal was very definitely a disciplinarian. However, it was also found that this man was very understanding, friendly and willing to lend a helping hand.

We welcome Mr. Estes and trust that many classes in the future may be privileged to work and play under his guidance.

Mr. Estes' message to students is:

"The real test of a school is the quality of student it turns out. We, of the faculty, have enjoyed working with you. We have faith that you will fulfill the promise you have shown here."

Mrs. Margaret Trapp
Secretary

OUR STAFF

Mrs. Trapp, our cheerful and competent secretary, has handled business affairs of the school in an entirely efficient manner. A friend to all is Margaret.

CAFETERIA

Approximately 280 people are fed in the new cafeteria daily. Mrs. Glover, our former capable manager, has not as yet been replaced.

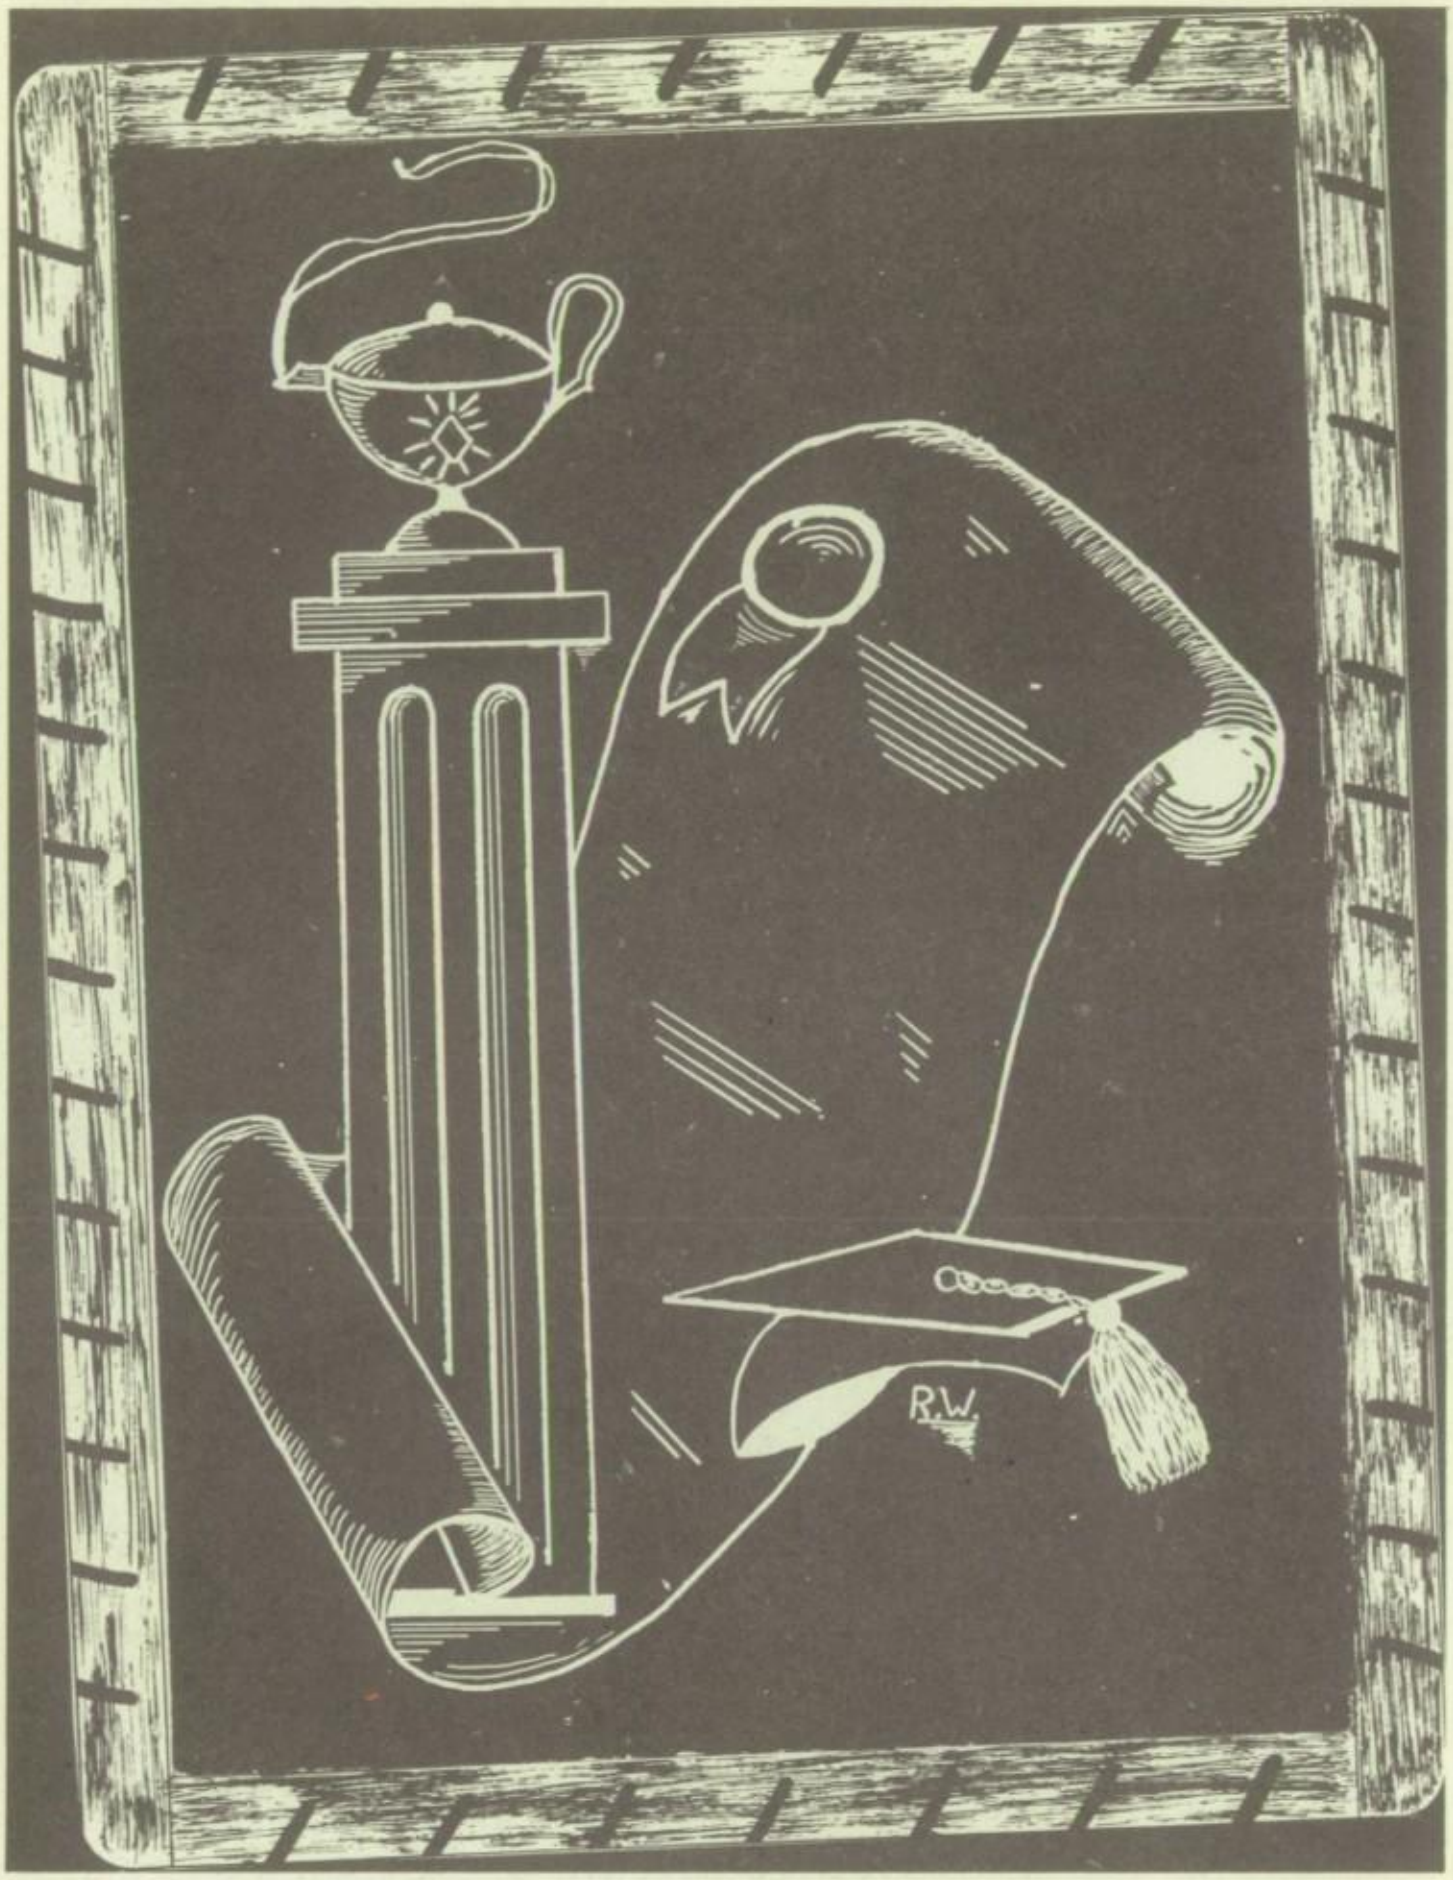
In spite of three mad dashes and crowded lines, Mrs. Del Gatto, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Broomfield contrive to keep their nerves under control and serve us with a smile.

CUSTODIANS

Our good friends, Mr. Wylie and Mr. Aldrich, look happy as though they liked working in R.J.C. We students are grateful for the tasks they perform to add to our comfort and happiness.

Added to the staff of custodians are Mrs. Frances Governor and Mr. Lauren Robyn. Though we haven't their pictures, we will never forget their presence.

Mr. Charles Wylie, Mr. Nathaniel Aldrich.



SENIORS

Mr. Stackwick, Joe DelGatto, Bill Hessney, Joe McIntyre, Jane McCarthy, Miss Arnold.

This group has been as alert as it is photogenic. Under the gavel of President, William Paul Hessney, matters of business have been carried on with strict adherence to the rules of Parliamentary Procedure.

All activities, which have been many and varied, have been directed toward the ultimate goals of the New York Trip and the production of this Yearbook.

Miss Arnold and Coach Stackwick have offered not only guidance, but have worked diligently and willingly to help the Seniors accumulate funds and then budget their expenditures.

OUR SENIOR ADVISERS AND OFFICERS

PAULINE ANGELINE

Pauline chases away the shadows with her ever ready smile.

SENIOR HISTORY

The Class of 51 was not always as they are today. Until their Junior year in high school, they were divided into 2 groups. SHS and MHS.

Those early years were not idle ones for either group, however. Those from MHS sponsored a LEAP YEAR dance, a gala affair and also a SPRING FESTIVAL. Their future comrades from SHS were responsible for FUN NITE and also a "Sophomore Hop".

Then came the fateful year 1949 and the half from MHS centralized with the half from SHS and the class of 51 of RJC came into being.

What a successful year for the newly united class! The SPRING FESTIVAL and JUKE BOX left people talking for months afterward.

During their senior year their efforts brought forth the Club and the Sno Ball. Both were great successes!

Now it is the end of our happy R. J. C. days and our class again divides. But this time each and every one in the class must go this own Way and make his goal in LIFE. United, not physically but in MEMORY.

What these Jolly Juniors can't think of is truly inconceivable! They are a very enterprising young group, having sponsored everything from a "Bunny Hop" to Minstrel Shows and Hayrides, and we're told that a Horror Play is now in progress. We may expect anything!

The class is well represented in the band, the chorus, in journalism and above all in art, that is "art of a sort"—definitely original and abounding in caricature.

There will be keen competition too for scholastic honors for we know of six among this group who have enviable academic records.

Mr. Harkenrider and Mr. Bowen have admirably kept pace with their fast tempo and have directed and guided to the complete satisfaction and pleasure of the class.

May the Juniors meet with success and happiness in their Senior year!

OUR JUNIORS

OUR SOPHOMORES

These forty sophomores claim the largest room in the building as their headquarters, and what's more—they have two faculty members to account to each day. Can it be that they are so super-charged with energy that this is a necessary disciplinary measure? Such an erroneous idea must be contradicted, for one of their home room advisors insists that they make up the best class in the school and that they show great promise of scholastic achievement.

Under the guidance of Miss Coughlin and Mr. Izzo, they have had a happy and successful year.

OUR FRESHMEN

Miss Johnson, Advisor; Phillip Gilligan, Secretary; Carl Romeiser, Treasurer; Mr. Markello, Advisor; Frances Walker, President; Emily Diazio, Vice-President.

Did someone say, "Where, oh where are our verdant Freshmen?" Here they are, the largest class in High School.

Their activities have been limited because priority is given to upperclassmen. They have, however, sponsored a "Vic Dance" and are planning a spring event—Frosh Frolic—perhaps? which they hope will do them credit.

Their talents are beginning to show in the band, in the chorus and in sports events. Upon request of the Freshmen we give special recognition here to Sophia Stambach, a most promising singer of whom they are rightly very proud.

The Freshmen appreciate the wise council of their advisors, Miss Johnson and Mr. Markello.

ACTIVITIES

Standing: Fred Verhoeven, Charlene Gwilt, Trent Nicholson, Janet Howe. Seated: John Twenty-five, Mr. Stackwick, Marie Gersbach, Lawrence Hayden, Howard Washburn, Terry Crowther, Clarence Tierney.

On behalf of the student body, the Student Council wishes to welcome Ida Mischenko to our school. We hope that she and her family will find happiness in our community. Ida has written a message for us in Russian and in Ukranian. Translated, the words read: "I like living in a Democracy."

Мне нравится жизнь
в демократической стране!

Мені подобається життя
в країні демократії!

Ida Mischenko

Every Tuesday during the eighth period a group of twelve students meets with the advisor, Mr. Stackwick, to solve the problems of the school. These students make up our Student Council, a body of which our school is very proud.

This year our Student Council provided free transportation to the basketball games for the students of Red Jacket. This helped the students to know that their representatives were behind them.

On December eighth, an oratorical contest was sponsored by the Student Council. William VanHerpe received a sweater for winning first place, his runner up, Ellen Stambach, received a school letter.

We have endeavored to do a good job and are thankful for the cooperation of the faculty and also the student body.

OUR STUDENT COUNCIL

OUR RED JACKET TRAIL

Preparing a yearbook is an undertaking which requires many long hours and much patience. Many heartbreaking setbacks such as bad photos and write-ups make the job even more difficult. Deadlines are a never-ending plague that the staff of a yearbook is constantly facing.

This year, however, despite all these setbacks we feel that "Red Jacket Trail" is a sort of model that future generations at R.J.C. can look back on and be proud of. The new bound volume yearbook is certainly an improvement over the paper type and it is, we feel, a must in such a school as dear old R.J.C. to match, at least in part, the quality of a school with the quality of its yearbook.

Mrs. Ruth Lamphier

Joan Schlecht
Editor-in-Chief

These three Sophomores were a great help to our Art Editor, Beverly Hessney. The staff appreciates their talent and cooperation.

Joe McIntyre
Editor

Meeting a deadline!

Much credit is due to these Red Jacket Indians who are responsible for the issue of "Smoke Signals," our weekly newspaper. They are to be commended for their ability to meet deadlines, and to put news of interest into the hands of the student body each Friday. What they lack in technic, they make up for in originality, and it is their hope that the quality of the paper may improve as they gain experience and instruction in the fundamentals of journalism.

Mr. Bowen, faculty adviser, has given capable guidance and help to this newly formed organization.

The present staff consists of: Joe McIntyre, Editor-in-Chief; Pat Hogan, Assistant Editor; Joe Weaver, Production Manager; Hollis Robinson, Sports Editor; Foster Englehart, Head Typist; Lawrence Hayden, Art Editor; Virginia Bromley, Business Manager. There are many others who participate in this activity and contribute generously to its achievements.

LIBRARY CLUB

Library Club members type, mend, keep a school scrapbook and help with grades. These activities provide a chance to get better acquainted with library resources and to assume responsibility. For some it is fine vocational training. Several have been members for four years.

THE F. H. A.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA! What a challenge there is in the title of this social organization. Here under the supervision of Miss DeGraee, members learn the fundamentals of etiquette, the art of social adjustments, participation in group living, and some of the skills pertaining to home planning.

Need we say they find this project enjoyable?

DIRECTOR

Mr. Robert Toft

SENIOR

The Jr. Band consists mostly of Jr. High students who started playing this summer. Rehearsals are held twice a week and Mr. Toft states that they are improving with each rehearsal. Many of the students are being primed to play in the Sr. Band next year.

"Eureka! It's done!" These were the words uttered by Mr. Toft as he viewed the new modernistic band room which had just received its finishing touches. The novice band room has proved very efficient as far as Mr. Toft and the members of the band are concerned.

Mr. Toft has embarked on another novelty project for R.J.C.S. The year of '50 marks the first time a R.J.C.S. band has played Grade 5 music. A-1 rating at the annual contest is very much anticipated and would be very welcome.

This year the band hopes to make a trip to Albany. Several concerts were given this year, including assemblies at Victor and Phelps. "A Mile of Pennies" was instituted to build funds for expenses. To augment the fund, a turkey supper was held.

Back Row: Mr. Toft, Anita Mink, Barbara Walbridge, Alvin Sadler, Donna Johnson, Elizabeth Miles, Anne Johnson, Patricia Crowther, Bob Van Herpe, John Stambach, Michael Bolan, Betty Peters, Ernest Herendeen, Beverly Curtis. Next Row: Ronald Schaefer, Robert Groat, Sandra Brown, David DeVoll, James Farrel, Robert White, Linda DeBrock, Melanie Van Herpe, Priscilla Brott, Jean Draper, Allyn Olmstead, Margaret Stambach. Next Row: John Perry, Robert Gardner, Carol Herendeen, David Gwilt, John DeVoll, Douglas Parmele, Leonard Bolton.

Director

In the words of Poe with apologies to him: "What a gush of euphony voluminously wells!" Under the direction of Mrs. Dorscheid, these choristers render grade 5 music capably and pleasingly. The public is frequently entertained by their harmony as they give joint concerts with the band. One of the outstanding projects of the year is participation in the Spring Music Festival—this year held in nearby Canandaigua. Outstanding solo work has been done by Sophia Stambach, Joe DelGatto, Shirley Hyde, Joyce Cianfoni and John Doody. Mrs. Dorscheid tells us that working with people like these makes her glad she chose music as her career.

Miss Clara Johnson, of the Language Department, generously donates her talent at the piano in accompanying this group.

Miss Clara Johnson

OUR VARSITY CHOIR

CHORUS

The Junior Chorus is made up of 30 students from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

They will sing grade 2 music at the Spring Festival.

Mrs. Dorscheid finds this group very interesting to work with because of their enthusiasm and ability.

In concert work, they have appeared with the Senior Chorus and have performed admirably.

The Junior High English teacher, Miss Christine Ellis, faithfully and capably accompanies this group.

Miss Christine Ellis
Accompanist

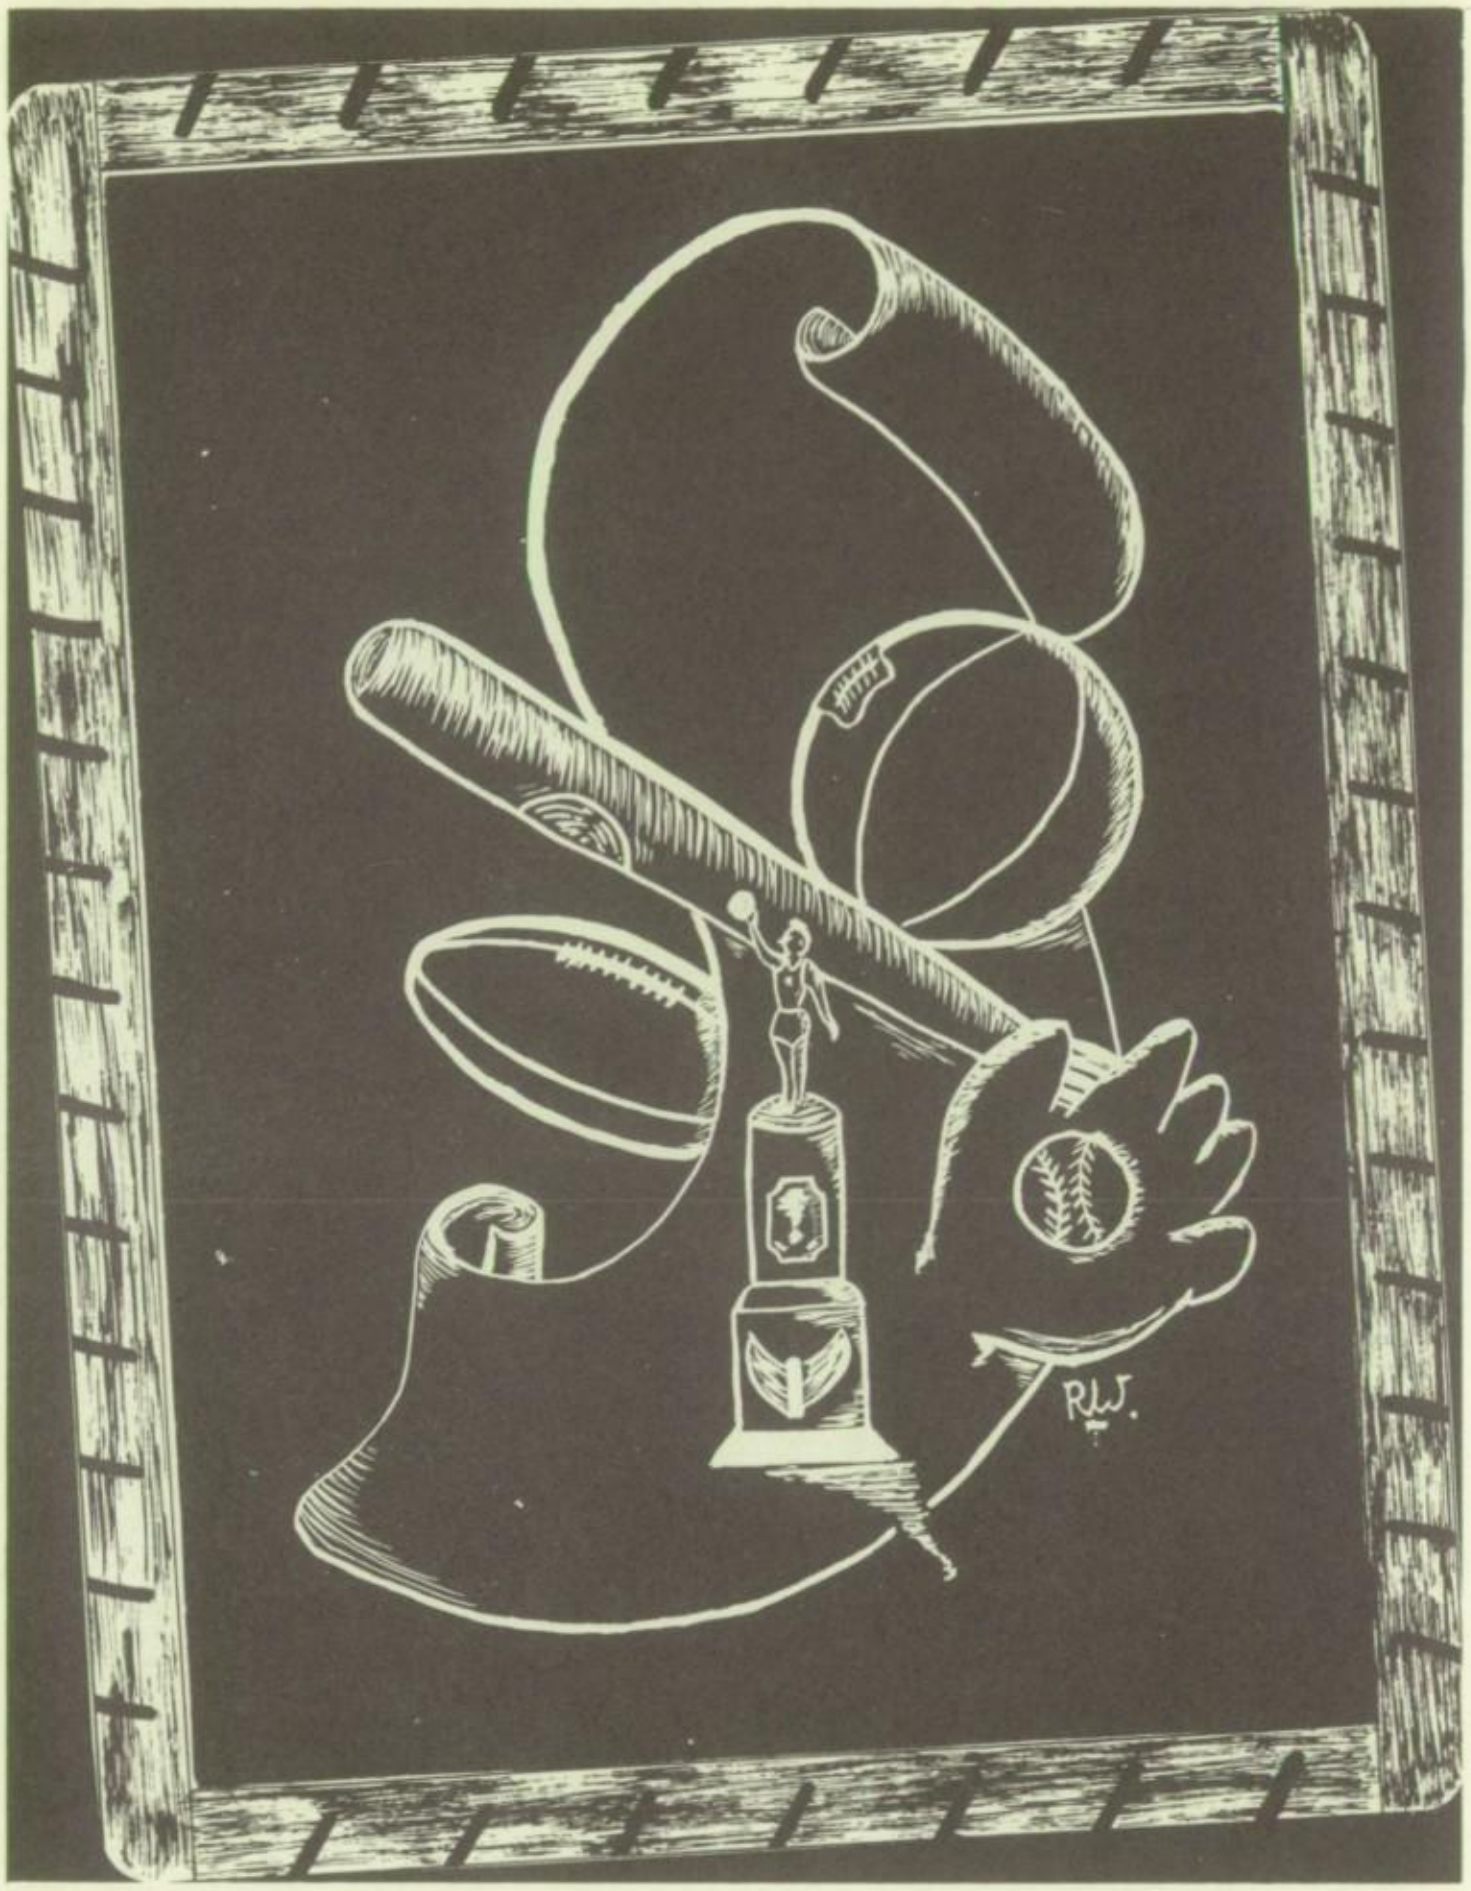
THE SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS:
"SEVENTEENTH SUMMER"



ATHLETICS

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Edward Stackwick
Coach

The Red Jacket "Indians" in 50-51 started out in defense of their BC championship which they captured last year. They did a very commendable job finishing in a tie for second place under the champions, Naples. Incidentally, the Indians won and lost one to the champions.

This year's squad was a high scoring aggregation sporting a 65.5 point average the first four games. Not possessing a great deal of height but plenty of speed and determination enabled the Redmen to close out a successful season.

SCHEDULE

Red Jacket	56	Rushville	48

JR. VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's aggregation of Indians posted a 11–5 season record equal to that of the Varsity. They also finished second.

The "Jaycees" hit on a five game winning streak, bowling over Rushville, Honeoye, Clifton, Gorham and Bloomfield in succession.

The 12 men squad, like the Varsity, did not sport a height advantage over their opponent but surpassed them in their unique "never say die" attitude.

BASEBALL

Baseball has been and shall always be one of the favorite sports here at R.J.C. But then, success has always been a reason for favoritism. Last year, the hard-hitting, fast moving, Red Jacket Warriors swept through the league practically unopposed. A repeat performance is expected this year, as most of our hurling power and power at the plate is here again to shine on the diamond and keep the banners of R.J.C. flying still over those of the opponents' schools. Yes, coach Sam Izzo feels he has all the material and the spirit needed to make this baseball year a slam-bang one.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Without these gay, enthusiastic, acrobatic cheerleaders, our games would be lacking in color and spirit. They have done a great deal not only to "spur on the team," but to promote good sportsmanship and right feeling with our friendly opponents. They say their favorite cheer is:

Pep, pep, you gotta' have pep
Steam, steam, you gotta' have steam
You've gotta' have pep,
You've gotta' have steam in order to beat this Varsity team!

1. Betty Griffin
2. Charlene Gwilt
3. Sophia Stambach
4. Clara Misleany
5. Virginia Mallaber
6. Jean Bonnell
7. George Miller
8. Virginia Bromley

You'll be seeing and hearing more of these people next year. Some of them will undoubtedly replace Senior members on the Varsity Squad. They are well qualified to carry on.

"Victory be our Cry!"

JUNIOR VARSITY

Josephine Bartholomew, Emily Diazio, Wilma Simmons, Anne Johnson, Susan Perry, Roy Whittaker, Sally Betz, Maureen Halton.

Supplies

The members of the Class of '51 wish to thank the school salesmen for their excellent work in soliciting advertisements.

We also wish to thank the individuals whose names and places of business appear on the following pages. Much of the success of our "Red Jacket Trail" is due to the financial support of OUR ADVERTISERS.
